

Cranes and Derricks in Construction-OSHA 2010 Mandate

This 40 hour course teaches and updates the mandated regulations handed down from OSHA to be implemented 90 days after August 9th 2010.(November 7th 2010)

Major Subjects covered: Training of Employees
Implementation of OSHA 2010 Mandates
Inspection of Lifting mediums
Assembly/Disassembly Personal
Signal Qualifications
Documentation of Annual Inspections
Certification of Crane Operators
Licensing Criteria

Table of contents: Operator Qualifications and Certification
Signal Person Qualifications
Qualification of Maintenance and Repair Employees
Training
Hoisting Personnel
Multiple-crane/derrick lifts--supplemental requirements
Design, Construction, Testing
Equipment Modifications
Tower Cranes
Derricks
Floating Cranes/Derricks and Land Cranes/Derricks on Barges
Overhead and Gantry Cranes
Dedicated Pile Drivers
Side Boom Cranes
Equipment with a rated Hoisting/Lifting capacity of >2000 lbs
Severability

This 40 hour course is a mandate from OSHA for any company using Cranes or Derricks for Construction purposes or Maintenance use.